Terrorism Recognition, Awareness, & Prevention Partnership (TRAPP)

Organizer/Host: Infragard, Los Angeles Chapter

TRAPP is a powerful four hour or half day training event that puts the power of knowledge and understanding behind the “see something, say something campaign.” Whether as a stand-alone terrorism prevention and outreach training event to either public or private sector students or as a key component of a fusion center’s FLO, TLO or ILO certification program, TRAPP is the most cost effective way to develop that collaborative effort and information sharing environment. Terrorist attacks are horrible, but too many times we discover they were also preventable. Suspicious Activity wasn’t recognized, and how to securely report it wasn’t understood, and pre-incident indicators were simply missed.

Riverside County Operational Area Business Emergency Operations Center Launch

Organizer/Host: Riverside County Emergency Management Department

The County of Riverside Emergency Management Department are pleased to announce the launch of the Riverside County Business Emergency Operations Center. During a large-scale disaster, the demand for resources will be great and cause delays in providing services to the residents and communities we serve. The government does not have the ability to do it alone. The Riverside County Business Emergency Operations Center (BEOC) will connect resource providers and strengthen partnerships with the business and private sectors before a disaster occurs.

Webinar: Preparedness Planning for Senior Citizen Communities

Organizer/Host: FEMA Region II

The senior citizen population faces several unique challenges, coupled with the fact that many are often dependent upon others for basic necessities and psychosocial support. This dependency often increases their vulnerability to the impacts of major disasters, when not only are the seniors themselves impacted, but these critical services are also disrupted.
